BY GRATTAN GEARY.
With a Map and Illustrations.
IN TWO VOLUMES.
A few Copies left to be disposed of at reduced price, Rs. 6-8; Postage, Annas 8.

(From the Russian "Golos.")

The Author keeps strictly within the domain of fact; and, with great fairness, tells all he saw during his long journey over Asiatic Turkey. He does not exaggerate that which reflects disgrace upon the Turks, nor does he withhold anything testifying in their favour.

Mr. Geary directs the attention of his readers to the fact that Russia, having possessed herself of Kars, now actually occupies in Asiatic Turkey the strongest strategic position. At any time she chooses she can annihilate Turkish power in Mesopotamia and Syria.

Mr. Geary states that the tribes inhabiting those parts for extremely dissatisfied with the Turkish rule.

TREACHER'S GINGER ALE, is highly aromatic and pleasingly pungent to the palate; the various ingredients of which it is composed are proportioned to a nicety, and the utmost care and cleanliness (as with all our Aerated Waters) are exercised in its production.

TREACHER'S LIME-ADE, is a delicious carbonated preparation of the Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice, an antiscorbutic, blood-purifying drink of superior character ranking as a companion to our much admired Ginger Ale. It is cooling and refreshing at all times, healthful and suited to the present season, and being of full citricity and flavour is palatable and agreeable both as a medicinal agent and as a beverage.

TREACHER'S SODA AND POTASH WATERS, are by the aid of steam power charged with Gas at the greatest possible pressure, and thereby rendered sparkling and agreeable in the highest degree.

TREACHER'S TONIC WATER, is unequalled for delicacy of flavour and tonic properties, each bottle containing a definite quantity of Quinine presented in an agreeable form.

TREACHER'S LEMONADE AND GINGERADE, are as flavoured waters celebrated for their freshness and delicious taste.

TREACHER'S AERATED WATER, is thoroughly impregnated with Carbonic Acid Gas, and being free from alkali, it is well adapted for admixture with Claret and Acid Wines. Alone it drinks sharper to the palate and with greater pungency than Soda Water.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 31.

REUTER'S telegrams of yesterday report an advance of ¼ in Consols and ⅛ in French Rentes, the quotations now being £98 and Fcs. 119½. In Indian Government Securities Fours were unchanged at 89½, but the price for Fours and-a-half has given way ¼ and are now quoted at 87½; inasmuch, however, as the rates are now only about ¼ per cent. below what there were a month ago. The recent unfavourable news from Afghanistan cannot be said to have had any very great influence on the market.

A further fall of 10s. is reported in Oriental Bank shares, the quotation being now £18-10. So that it may be assumed that the clique that made a set at the Bank a few months ago is again at work, as there is no reason why the £25 fully paid up shares should be at such a low level. An advance of 10s. per share is reported in Hongkong and Shanghai Bank shares which are now quoted at £37-10. No change is reported in the rates of discount in London. Money evidently continues very easy, the market rate being ¼ per cent. below the Bank rate, and Indian 4 months' sight bills ¼ per cent. below the Bank rate.

In the London General Produce markets there are no changes of any importance. Seeds are quiet and Wheat is firm.

In Manchester the market for Piece Goods yesterday was steady at Tuesday's rates, and in Liverpool the Cotton market closed steady with prices unchanged: the day's sales were 8,000 bales, of which 500 bales were Surats. The market is closed till Tuesday.

From the figures given below it will be seen that the total visible supply is further decreased by 80,000 bales and Surats by 10,000 bales. The Liverpool Stock owing to heavy imports is increased by 43,000 bales, but the quantity afloat is consequently decreased by 70,000 bales in American and 17,000 bales in East Indian.

BAR SILVER in London yesterday closed steady at 52 13-16d. per oz.

EXCHANGE opened firm here this morning at yesterday's quotations which have been well maintained throughout the day. As usual on mail day the amount of business passing has not been large. The market closes steady at the following rates, viz. :—

Bank Bills, on demand	...	1s. 8¼d.	per Re.
„	2 months' sight.	1s. 8¼d.	„
„	Telegraphic ...	1s. 8 7-32d.	„

Francs ₹	„ ...	2·16½	„

On Calcutta rates are unchanged at Rs. 100 1-16 for demand drafts and Rs. 99½ for 60 days' sight bills.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been very quiet to-day with very little doing, at Rs. 96 for Fours, Rs. 104½ for Fours-and-a-half; Rs. 94½ for Port Trust Bonds and Rs. 103½ for Five per cent. Municipal Loan.

SHARES.—The market remains quiet, but fairly steady. Very few changes have taken place in the value of Mill shares, but these are generally in favour of buyers. In Banks the only change is a decline of Rs. 2½ in Bombays. Other descriptions are all unaltered.

COTTON.—Prices continues steady, but the amount of business passing is insignificant.

LINSEED is rather firmer at Rs. 6-12 to Rs. 6-14 per cwt.

RAPESEED continues dull of sale at Rs. 6 per cwt. for Guzerat.

FREIGHTS show no signs of improvement, and with the present small exports little improvement can be expected. For Liverpool the nominal rate via Canal is 26s. For Trieste and Venice and Marseilles and Genoa Rs. 15 per ton.

IMPORTS.—Yarns and Piece Goods continue quiet but steady. Metals show some signs of improvement.

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1880.

WE are still without any information as to the circumstances under which the disaster befel General Burrows's Brigade. The Press Commissioner indeed has forwarded to the newspapers an account derived from "native sources" which does not show that the defeat was so crushing as was at first represented. According to this account the "British cavalry and guns were induced to follow the enemy's cavalry, who pretended to fly, and led them into a complete ambuscade. Ayub's army then delivered its attack, and our troops suffered very severely in officers and men. The battle that was then fought resulted in our retirement on Kandahar, but Ayub's army suffered much." This version of the defeat was issued by the Press Commissioner on Saturday as if it had then come into the hands of the Government. We may state that we heard this very account in Bombay on Thursday last, but dismissed it as unworthy of credence as we could not discover how it had come from Kandahar in the time, seeing that the only telegraph was cut. We are still sceptical about it, and for the same reason. But we are by no means satisfied that the Government of India is as ignorant as the Press and the public of the details of the disaster at Khushki-Nakhund. General Phayre was in continual "conversation" with General Primrose on Wednesday morning up to the moment the telegraph was cut. He received from General Primrose a list not only of the officers who had arrived in the city from the field of battle, but the names of the officers whom they had seen perish and the names of those whom they knew were safe. Is it to be supposed that General Primrose heard all these comparatively unimportant details as to the casualties and escapes of officers of the force without having the curiosity to ask how the brigade came to be defeated, if not destroyed? And if he did ask this most natural question are we to believe that not one of the nine or ten officers—two of whom were colonels—could give him any explanation of the catastrophe? That fact would in itself have been so portentous that surely it would have been specially mentioned by General Primrose in the course of his morning's conference with General Phayre. But it is not alleged that the fugitives did not know how this almost unparalleled misfortune came about. The presumption is that they knew—they must have known—every particular connected with it. And as a matter of course they must have told General Primrose all they knew, and General Primrose equally as a matter of course must have told General Phayre. Why, then, is this vital news withheld from the public? Had the Government for some political reason thought proper to withhold all information as to the defeat we would be willing to admit that the reticence might for all we knew have a sufficient justification. But when the fact that the column was defeated is not only made known, but is exaggerated by Ministerial lips into a statement—which has been happily proved to be erroneous—that the brigade was annihilated, what possible object can be attained by withholding all mention of the way in which the battle was fought and lost? The consequences of this singular reticence are most unfortunate, for everywhere the supposition has g

LATEST INTELLIGENCE

THE DEFEAT OF GENERAL BURROWS' FORCE.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

SIMLA, JULY 31.

QUETTA, July 31.—No direct news from our army at Kandahar have been received, but native sources do not describe General Burrows' defeat as crushing. They say that British cavalry and guns were induced to follow the enemy's cavalry, who pretended to fly, and led them into a complete ambuscade. Ayub's army then delivered its attack, and our troops suffered very severely in officers and men. The battle that was then fought resulted in our retirement on Kandahar, but Ayub's army suffered much. This report, though received from several sources, requires confirmation. A party went out from Chaman to assist and bring in the detachments at Gatai. All have since arrived in Chaman without casualties.

KABUL, July 30.—The Chief Political Officer leaves this evening for Kila Haji, and will have an interview with the Amir at Zimma to-morrow, and sundry arrangements made for his being received in General Gough's camp for a formal and ceremonial visit on Monday morning. All districts in the neighbourhood of Kabul are tranquil.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

SIMLA, AUG. 1.

Latest reports at Quetta indicate that Ayub Khan's troops did not follow up the British retreat, and that General Burrows has brought a force into Kandahar.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

KABUL, JULY 31.

The news of the defeat of General Burrows is not generally known here yet, and matters are progressing as before. The Kandahar authorities are much blamed for sending out so weak a force; nevertheless the defeat seems unaccountable.

WE publish to-day some interesting particulars of the adventures of the captain and remainder of the crew of the barque Mahableshwar, whom the S. S. Ash, which was sent out from Bombay after them, succeeded in finding, and landed here on Saturday.

By an unfortunate slip the Baluchi regiment (Colonel Tanner's) in Khelat-i-Ghilzai was spoken of as a Punjabi regiment in our leader of Saturday.

THE 2nd Queen's have been ordered to leave for Sukkur immediately.

A TELEGRAM from Kabul, July 26th, to the Lahore paper states:—According to city reports, Maho med Jan has made the following conditions with Abdul Rahman—namely, Musa Jan to be heir to the throne, and he, Mahomed Jan, Commander-in-chief.

A CALCUTTA paper states that among the numerous and valuable articles to be presented by the Indian Government to Sirdar Abdul Rahman Khan on the occasion of his installation on the Kabul guddee will, we understand, be a saddle with a cloth of gold cover studded with precious stones, valued at Rs. 2,000, and a State silver howdah of the value of Rs. 16,000, similar to that presented to the Khan of Khelat some time ago. Besides these, other articles of the collective value of about Rs. 40,000 will be despatched as presents to the Amir.

REGARDING the progress of Peshawar Railway, a contemporary states that, though the running of the train into Rawal Pindi has been indefinitely postponed by the accident to the Sohan bridge, the Engineer-in-Chief of the other section, Mr. O'Callaghan, is laying down the metal up to the Indus at Attock and beyond up to Peshawar as fast as he can. It is surmised that the three sections under the three Engineers-in-Chief will shortly be amalgamated into one section under Mr. O'Callaghan.

THE editor of the Kandahar News wrote in his paper of the 21st inst:—As we were going to Press this morning there was an alarm of Ghazis in the city. We had to lay aside our pen and take to sword and revolver and the printers to their rifles. The troops in the citadel stood to arms, the gunners manned the guns, and the infantry were at their posts in less than five minutes. Fifty men of the 19th N. I. were at once sent into the city, but could find no Ghazis. It was a false alarm and the troops, having been under arm for about half an hour, were dismissed.

IT is reported that the 62nd Regiment, now at Morar, will shortly proceed to Aden, and be relieved at Morar by the 22nd Regiment from Allahabad, which in turn will be replaced by the 39th Regiment.

TIDINGS have been received from Mr. Ney Elias, who returned to Yarkund from Kashgar on the 30th of June. It seems pretty certain now that the recent reports of Chinese victories over the Russians at the Terek Pass were altogether untrue.

IT is reported that His Highness the Maharaja of Travancore intends to set apart the private funds left by the late Maharaja (which amount to about eighteen lakhs of rupees), towards certain objects, the most important of which is the establishment of a Sanskrit College.

WE have before now noticed complaints of the small salary paid to the Assistant Government Advocate at Rangoon. The last incumbent of the office has filed a petition for relief on the Insolvency side of the Recorder's Court. His liabilities are put down at Rs. 61,000 and assets nil.

THE 2-11th Regiment were being moved up towards Quetta before the Khushki-Nakhund disaster was reported. Up to the 27th inst. four detachments, of 100 men each, had been despatched in mail trains from Kurrachee to Sibi. The detachment at Hydrabad joined them at Kotree.

MESSRS. MORAN AND CO.'s fortnightly report states that, "from the tea growing districts accounts generally are more favourable, and the garden musters recently received, both from Cachar and Assam, represent first-rate quality. From the North-West we hear there is a good demand for the Central Asian market, and a considerable portion of the crop of the Kumaon District will thus be disposed of locally."

TOUCHING the experiences of the Duke of Lancaster's passengers in their distress, the Indian Daily News remarks:—Aden did not appear very rich in resources and it was far from rich in charity, or helpfulness. The shipwrecked passengers complain of the apathy with which they were treated by the Aden people; but, perhaps, these took example from Lord Lytton, who was at Aden for two days, but made no offer to assist them in any way.

THE Mandalay correspondent of the Indian Daily News, writing on the 17th July, states:—There have been several changes in the Ministry, which show more clearly the King's favourites, and I may remark that a great portion of the favored men are hostile to England. First, we have the Shoaydike Atwin Woon, who has been made a Menghee. The Ponkmine Woondouk is now Pankine Atwin Woon, Thine Woondouk is Paghan Atwin Woon, while Pounghnyo Woon has become the Myitsin Atwin Woon.

A TRAGEDY is reported by the Rangoon Gazette's correspondent at Thayetmyo as having occurred there at the beginning of this month. One of the Queen's Own Sappers and Miners stationed seems to have got tipsy, and was locked up in the guard-room, where he became uproarious. This displeased the sergeant of the guard, who caused the unfortunate man to be gagged with a tent peg, rolled round with cloth, and the poor fellow was found dead from suffocation in the morning. All the men on guard at the time have been arrested pending enquiry.

A TELEGRAM from Simla to the Pioneer, dated 29th July, states:—"The total strength of the force with General Burrows was 2,400. With General Primrose at Kandahar there are now about 3,000 men, two regiments of the reinforcements having arrived on the 27th. General Phayre has about 2,000 men on the railway line of communications, and these are to be concentrated forthwith; the majority at Pishin for rapid advance on Kandahar, and partly at Sibi. Two strong brigades of Bengal troops are to be pushed forward from India with all speed."

IF we are to judge by the effect of similar operations in Calcutta, the people residing in parts of the town where drainage operations are in progress are not without cause for uneasiness. Under the heading "The new drainage," the Indian Daily News says:—"On Tuesday evening, British Indian Street was six inches deep in water from wall to wall. Of course, our compound was inundated; so was our press-room, simply because the water could not flow off. We beg to offer the Municipality our sincere and grateful congratulations upon having produced such an effect. If they would only supply us with a boat as well as water, we should be more grateful still."

EXTENSIVE reform is contemplated by the Indian Postal department. It is stated that the designation of inspectors is to be done away with, and that of superintendents to be substituted in its stead. There will be some 16 Superintendents of Postal Accounts in all India, to be selected from the superior grades of the present Inspectors, on a salary of Rs. 500 each per mensem, and a travelling allowance of Rs. 5 per diem, or 8 annas per mile. A number of inspecting officers, to be designated Divisional Superintendents, and selected from all classes of the present Inspectors, on the same pay that they now draw, are also to be appointed. Mr. J. Owens, the present Supernumerary Inspector of the Presidency Division, is to be Personal Assistant to the Post-Master-General of Bengal.

THE Times of India was indeed considerably "mixed" on Saturday. It devoted a spirited leader to the conveyance of its military commentary on the situation as above mentioned, and besides went in to prove at great length that in its opinion the reading of a long speech in the Corporation by poor Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee was a greater public calamity than the destruction of General Burrows' brigade by Ayub Khan. Upon this latter trifle it had some second-hand information under a large type heading, "News from General Roberts' force before the Disaster." Even the name of the General in command was not deemed worth a thought—one commander was as good as another! General Roberts has had sufficient misfortunes of his own in connection with the Afghan campaign, without being saddled with the mistakes of his brother generals on the Kandahar side.

THE tea gardens of Sylhet are estimated by the Deputy Commissioner in a recent report to contain about 20,000 acres under plant, which yielded 24 lakhs of pounds of tea in 1878 and 30 lakhs in 1879, and will eventually yield 40 lakhs. Out of a total area of 75,338 acres taken up for tea cultivation, about one-fourth is now being worked, and of this about three-fifths is under mature, and two-fifths under immature, plants. It is the Deputy Commissioner's opinion that the district, from its situation and its ample food-supply, should, as a tea growing area, be able to undersell any other district in the province. The carriage to Calcutta is not an exorbitant item at any rate. The opening of the Northern Bengal State Railway has driven many country boats to the Sylhet trade, and freights have consequently fallen till they have reached Rs. 20 per 100 maunds to Calcutta, or, as the Deputy Commissioner puts it, one-eighth of a penny per ton per mile.

It is reported from Kurrachee that the Indus Valley State Railway authorities are importing men as drivers from England on pay (Rs. 80 per mensem only) that firemen on good guaranteed lines won't accept. The Beacon thinks that, considering the dearness of living on the Jacobabad and Sibi sections, and the arduous work expected of them, these men cannot fail to become discontented, and quitting their employ will help to increase the already too largely recruited ranks of "loaferdom" in the country. "The men evidently fancy, before engaging in England, that the promised sum of Rs. 80 a month is equivalent to £8 sterling, whereas a rupee here does not go so far as a shilling will at home, and this they will soon learn from sad experience. Surely the railway companies that encourage these men to come out should be made to pay them their passage back when they begin to get dissatisfied. Twelve men have recently come out for the Indus Valley and Punjab Northern State Railways."

"IT seems the Times of India," says the Bombay Review maliciously, "does not believe 'in editing made easy' when it fancies that is done at its own expense. It offers evidence this morning of what looks very like a 'crib.' Probably the Gazette has been imposed on; but if so, it ought to expose the impostor." The "crib" and its genesis may be easily explained. A junior reporter fresh from England and taken on the staff on the strength of a recommendation from one of the Times of India people was detailed to get certain information. Seeing an apparently official list of the troops beyond Kandahar in the Times of India he set about verifying it. He found it inaccurate, and incomplete. Its blunders were due to the fact naively confessed by our contemporary on Saturday that the list was not "merely official;" it was partly made up out of its own head. The reporter having with considerable pains set the list right handed it in. He inadvertently omitted to score out a sapient sentence which had been added to the humdrum list of names and figures, such as that it was a singular coincidence that seeing there are "thirty regiments in the Bombay army both the 1st and the 20th were engaged on this occasion!" The theft of this brilliant piece of military criticism has set the Parsee Bazaar in an uproar. The junior reporter was, of course, very foolish to have thoughtlessly done this profitless thing. He has been warned not to do it again. But after all it was not so bad as to print on two separate occasions great stretches of Lord Stanley of Alderley's pamphlet on a Court of Appeal for India as original leading articles of the regulation length.

SIMLA, July 27.—The barometer continues falling in Northern India, and in a diminished degree the fall has extended to Southern India. In Burmah it is greater than in any part of India. Heavy rain has fallen at many stations in Bengal especially at Purneah (5¼ inches), Darjiling (5 inches), Mozufferpore (4½ inches), Patna (2½ inches), Dinagepore (2¾ inches), Burdwan (2½ inches), Chittagong, and Calcutta. In the North-Western Provinces there is but little rain reported: Benares has ½ inch, and Fyzabad 1-tenth. In the Punjab, only 1-tenth at Simla. In Rajputana and Central India no rain, except 15 cents at Rutlam; and the same in the Central Provinces and Berar. In Bombay no rain of importance, except 2-tenths at Satara. In Madras, 9-tenths at Madras, 11-tenths at Cochin, and 4-tenths at Calicut.—HENRY F. BLANFORD, Meteorological Reporter to Govt. of India.

HIGH COURT.—JULY 31.

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice WEST.)

DISPUTE ABOUT POSSESSION OF LAND.

VURJEEVUNDAS MADHOWDAS AND ANOTHER VS. MAHOMED AMKHAN EBRAHIM.

THE Hon. Mr. Latham and Mr. Farran, instructed by Messrs. Prescot and Winter, appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Lang and Mr. Inverarity, instructed by Mr. Payne, for the defendant.

This is an action to recover possession of a plot of land containing about 10,000 square yards situated at Worlee. The land, it appears, has been in possession of plaintiff's family for upwards of fifty years, and it is their custom to sell the grass, leaving the land in charge of a custodian. In the year 1873 the grass of the land was sold for the next year to Tookaram Rowjee, and on 5th August last defendant forcibly possessed himself of the land and prevented Tookaram Rowjee from cutting the grass, but turned cattle out on the land, and cut the grass himself. The defendant asserts the action should not be brought against him, but against some other parties.

The hearing of the case was adjourned.

MARCH OF CIVILISATION.—In the insolvent Court, on Monday last, while Mr. Justice Kernan was inquiring into the case of a native insolvent debtor, the following dialogue took place between his Lordship and a witness of the same caste as the insolvent:—Judge.—I see in this Schedule an item of Rs. 150 for purchase of liquors on a wedding occasion. Do people of your caste drink? Witness.—Oh! yes, my lord, they do, and Rs. 150 is a very small item for a wedding occasion.—J.—What do you drink. Brandy and Soda? W.—Oh, yes Brandy pute arrack and other liquors.—J.—Of what caste are you? W.—Silk weaver.—J.—Do the women drink also? W.—Oh yes, except very young females.—J.—Do you get drunk, W.—Oh yes, very often.—J.—It is a wrong thing to do.—W.—Yes my lord. It is not a good thing. But it has been the custom to drink and get drunk.—Standard.

THEFT OF A GOLD WATCH.—On Saturday, at the Girgaum Police Court, Pragjee Kessowjee, a Bhatia merchant, was charged before Mr. Dossiboy Framjee with the theft of a gold watch and chain of the aggregate value of Rs. 325, the property of Bulwunt Krishnajee Nandwarker, the proprietor of a dispensary on the Kalbadevie Road. Mr. Dhyriawan, barrister, appeared for the defence. The evidence for the prosecution went to show that about two years ago the complainant, on returning one evening from his dispensary to his house on the Girgaum Back Road, observed the prisoner sitting in one of the rooms of his house and conversing with a member of his family. He (complainant) left his watch and chain on a bed and retired for the night in another room. On the following morning the watch and chain were missing. He reported the matter to the police, but the articles were never heard of till Wednesday last, when a man, named Appajee, showed complainant the watch and asked him to have it valued. He at once identified the chain as his own property, and from further enquiries made he found Appajee had obtained the articles from a Hindoo gentleman to whom a Marwari had given to be disposed of among his friends. On the matter being reported to the police, it was discovered that the prisoner had sold the watch to a Bhatia who had subsequently pledged it with the Marwari. The chain was found to have been pledged with another Bhatia merchant by the prisoner. The case was adjourned to Thursday next, for further hearing.

CHARGE OF PERJURY AGAINST THE PROPRIETOR OF THE Poona Observer.—Some months ago when Major T. Trueman was Assistant Cantonment Magistrate at Poona, Mr. Dadabhoy Sorabjee, one of the Proprietors of the Daily Telegraph and Deccan Herald, applied for and obtained leave to prosecute Mr. Rustomjee Dadabhoy, the proprietor of the Poona Observer and the Civil and Military Gazette, for having given false evidence in Major Trueman's Court, in the case of Goodall vs. Dadabhoy Sorabjee in stating solemn affirmation the following words "no other man in any present establishment has ever been a policeman," by no other man meaning no other man but Goodall the complainant in the case. Major Trueman gave the necessary sanction under Section 468 of the Criminal Procedure Code, and those who read Major Trueman's reasons for doing so, cannot but say they are both cogent and conclusive. Mr. Dadabhoy Sorabjee accompanied by his brother, Mr. Jeevajee Sorabjee, last Thursday appeared before Colonel Britten, the Cantonment Magistrate, and applied for copies of all the papers with the view of prosecuting Mr. Rustomjee Dadabhoy for perjury. Colonel Britten noticed the application, and it is understood that the case will be transferred to the Court of the City Magistrate, Mr. Plunkett, and that the trial will shortly be commenced.

THE INDUS VALLEY RAILWAY.—We are informed once more—this time we believe on reliable authority—(our informant says "there is no mistake about it")—that the S.P. and D. Company are to take over charge of the working of the Indus Valley line on the 1st January 1881. We have heard this so often predicated of, one date after another, that we shall be glad to report it as a fact. We hope there is to be "no humbug" this time. The scheme has been so long incubating that it stands a fair risk of being addled. Of course there are "opposing interests." The great folks who draw large, and the minor ones who draw small (er) salaries at an easy cost of labour of body and brain, don't like being dislodged. For the interests of the public, the economic working of the line, the benefit of the Government and of the shareholders of the S. P. and D. who are both losers by the present "divided authority," it is desirable that there should be no more "shilly shallying," but that the date now fixed shall be final and irrevocable.—Kurrachee Civil and Military Gazette.

WESTERN INDIA HUNT RACES.

THE meeting took place last Friday evening on a different course than that of last year, the cross-country selected being at Bhambhoorda not far from Gunn with this blunder, we thought, all Afghan blundering would end. While Afghan news was preparing us for the big fatwahs of a coronation day, the holding of Durbars, the distribution of khilats and mutual showers of praise, the happy mood of our mind was chased away by the telegram reporting that General Burrow's force (amounting to about 2,700 men all told) was almost wholly cut up in an action at Khushki-Nakhund about forty miles from Kandahar by the forces of Ayub Khan. The details of the engagement are not to hand, nevertheless it is stated that out of a force of nearly three thousand soldiers two thousands have been killed. It is another Isandula and will be worse in its effects. The enemy were said to be superior in number. But who is to be held responsible for the catastrophe? We are sorry that while there is such a large force as 60,000 in the country, and while the public is being told that we hold our own, such a sad occurance should happen. But it only tells that Afghanistan is seathing from one end to the other, that our occupation of the country means the occupation of places actually in our possession, and that the news generally from the seat of war is anything but rustworthy.

THE Englishman:—It would be premature, in the absence of details, to speculate on the immediate cause of the crushing defeat sustained by the brigade under General Burrows. One thing, however, may be accepted as certain—that the accessive weakness of the brigade was a contributing cause of the disaster, if it did not render it inevitable; and for the arrangements which resulted in that excessive weakness, Sir Frederick Haines as Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Indian forces, must be held primarily responsible. The mere fact that, with a total force of some sixty thousand men of all arms and upwards of a hundred guns employed beyond the frontier, a brigade of about two thousand men, with six guns, was all that it was considered necessary to oppose to the most formidable body of the enemy, with the strongest force of artillery, that has yet been brought against us, is in itself damnatory of the military capacity of those who are responsible for it. General Burrows may have managed his brigade well or ill; the troops composing it may have behaved badly or may have fought their best. But in any case, it is obvious that the odds against which they were pitted were overwhelming. Neither ignorance of the disparity, nor want of time to redress it, can be pleaded in extenuation of the failure that has ended so disastrously. For it is nearly two months since it was known that Ayub Khan was advancing against Kandahar with a force which, without taking any account of accessions by the way, outnumbered General Burrows' brigade in the ratio of nearly four to one, and with five or six guns for every one at his disposal. What is more, Ayub's advance was even then no sudden movement which the military authorities had no reason to expect. It had been prepared at leisure and threatened for months. The case, again, was not one in which there need have been any difficulty in massing an adequate force on the spot. It is barely four months since we had a splendid army at Kandahar, including some of our best troops; an army which would not only have disposed of any force that Ayub Khan could have brought against them, but which, if necessary, could have assumed the offensive and given a very good account of Herat itself. Yet, knowing Ayub Khan to be hostile, and knowing that the flower of the Afghan army was in Herat, with a strongly fortified base of operations, abundantly stocked with artillery and all the munitions of war, the authorities, without any urgent necessity, withdrew the whole of this force, and replaced it by a miserably weak contingent of interior material, ill-supplied with guns, and with badly secured communications. Whatever may be the precise way in which the disaster has happened, it was plainly invited by the fatuousness of those in whose hands ill-fortune has placed our military administration, a fatuousness before which even that of Lord Chemsford in Zululand pales. * * * * From the terms in which the Secretary of State described the defeat it is evident that the Government of India is possessed of much fuller information regarding the nature of the catastrophe than is implied in the Press Commissioner's message. On political grounds the reticence on the part of the Government of India may have been justifiable; for it is highly probable that the publication of the truth at Kabul will be followed by an immediate re-action from the present state of quietude among the Chiefs and tribes in that neighbourhood. The announcement of the Secretary of State, however, removes all ground for further concealment here; for, while "annihilation" is the very worst that can have happened to the brigade, the true particulars may render some qualification of the expression possible. We trust, therefore, that the Government of India will lose no time in putting the public in full possession both of the details of what has occurred and of the actual position at Kandahar and in its neighbourhood. It is obvious that unless the reverse is immediately and completely redressed, the arrangements for evacuating Kabul can no longer be carried out with either dignity or safety, and, as it seems improbable that this can be accomplished without a much larger force than we at present possess in South Afghanistan, the chances are that the war will be indefinitely prolonged.

THE MAITLAND—BERESFORD CASE.

The plaintiff sues the defendant on the allegation that, on the 26th October 1879, at Meerut, the defendant falsely and maliciously spoke, in the hearing of Surgeon-Major Thorburn, 13th Hussars, Captain Horace Hayes, the Buffs, Mr. Bertie Short, Mr. Frank Garrett, Mr. Doyne, 13th Hussars, Mr. Charsley Thomas and Captain Gough, 10th Hussars, the following words concerning the plaintiff:—"I wonder you have anything to say to that fellow Maitland; he was turned out of a club in China for card-sharping, and is a general blackguard and sharper. I can prove all I have said about the card-sharping, and I will get the fellow kicked off the Turf. I accused him at Umballa of sharping, and he all but cried about it, and begged me to spare him. He is a common blackguard and card-sharper." That, in consequence of these words of the defendant, the plaintiff's character has been brought into great disrepute; and divers persons with whom he was on visiting terms, and amongst others Captain Hayes, of Her Majesty's 3rd Regiment, have refused to speak to him unless he clears his character from the said charge. In conclusion the plaintiff prayed judgment for Rs. 6,000 as damages for the wrong so done to him.

On behalf of the defendant it was contended that the plaintiff was, the defendant believed, originally engaged in mercantile pursuits in China, but he left China some years ago for India, where he has since resided, and he has now, the defendant believed, no other business or occupation than that of a connection with the Turf. That some years ago the plaintiff was suspended from his occupation of racing horses by the authorities of the Bangalore Race Meeting, in consequence, the defendant believed of alleged malpractices by him at the Bangalore Race Meeting. That the defendant was one of the stewards of the Meerut Race Meeting held in October 1879. That on the 26th October, the plaintiff, being present at a luncheon party made by the Stewards, used disrespectful language concerning the Stewards. On the evening of the same day the defendant was in the lottery-room sitting quietly with friends, when he was told by some persons present that the plaintiff had called the defendant's cousin, Mr. Holmes, of the Indian Civil Service, a liar. The defendant thereupon went up to Maitland, and stated that he, Maitland, must at once apologize or leave the room. A short conversation then took place between the defendant and the plaintiff, in the course of which the defendant referred to Maitland having been warned off the Turf at Bangalore, and to some transaction at cards in China which the defendant had heard Maitland had been connected with. Maitland then apologised for his conduct in the Meerut lottery-room, and after temporarily leaving the room returned and remained there for some time. That after the lotteries were concluded, the defendant was sitting smoking and talking with a few of his own friends when Captain Horace Hayes, of the Buffs, came across the room, and in course of conversation asked the defendant what he meant by a reference to a card transaction in China. The defendant replied that he had heard Maitland had been obliged to leave a club in China for cheating at cards, but that he, the defendant, did not know whether it was true or not, or words to that effect. This was in the course of private conversation between the defendant and Captain Hayes. The defendant denies he had any malice against the plaintiff, and states that the plaintiff has since the occurrence of 26th October pursued his occupations at the Hyderabad, Allahabad, Calcutta, Dacca, and Bombay Race Meetings, and has at each place been received on the same footing as before in all respects. That the plaintiff shortly since presented a plaint to the High Court at Fort William in Bengal in respect of the same matter as whereas he claimed Rs. 50,000 as damages instead of Rs. 6,000 in this suit, and the account therein given of the occurrence differs materially from the statements made in the present plaint. The defendant submits that the plaintiff, after his conduct on the 26th October, has no reason for complaint against the defendant. Even if he had originally cause of complaint it has been removed by the correspondence which has subsequently taken place.

On the day following the occurrence at the lotteries, Mr. Maitland wrote to Lord Beresford asking for an apology, and received the following reply:—

Meerut, 27th October.—Sir,—As you allow, in the first part of your letter of yesterday that you were "warned off" the Bangalore Turf, I have nothing to say regarding my words on this head; but with reference to the statement made by me, alluded to in the second part of your letter, to the effect that I had heard you were detected cheating at cards in China." I do hereby retract and apologize for the same, as at present I am not in a position to prove it.—W. Beresford.

Mr. Maitland not considering this sufficient apology, and Lord William Beresford declining to say more, legal proceedings were instituted.

At the hearing, the counsel for the plaintiff (Mr. Turner) intimated to the court that he was prepared to accept an apology on behalf of the plaintiff, but the defendant did not accede to the offer.

Mr. R. K. Maitland examined:—I was born at South Molton, in the county of Devon. My father was Vicar of the parish. My mother was the daughter of the Rector of South Brent. She was a lady of fortune.

Mr. McNair, counsel for defendant, objected to the record being burdened with the antecedents of the witness. The objection was allowed by the court.

The witness stated—When I first left England I went to China, in 1859, to the house of Turner & Co., of which my cousin was the head partner. Turner & Co. were one of the half dozen great houses of China, commonly called merchant princes.

The defendant's counsel objected to the evidence as regards Turner & Co. The court held it to be irrelevant.

The witness stated.—I resided in Canton, in charge of Turner & Co. I carried on business in new Chuang, which has just been opened by Lord Elgin's treaty.

The counsel for the plaintiff proposed to ask the witness to give the history of his business transactions in China and of his general life since he arrived in China, up to the present date.

The counsel for the defendant objected to this evidence on the ground of its being irrelevant.

The court ruled that the plaintiff should confine his evidence to the Hong-Kong Club matter.

The witness stated—I was never a member of the Hong-Kong Club. I was never turned out of any club in China for cheating at cards or anything else.

Who proposed you for the Shanghai Club?

This question was objected to by the counsel for the defendant. Objection disallowed by the court.

The witness stated.—I was proposed a member of the Hong-Kong Club. I was not elected. I was blackballed.

Why were you blackballed?

Objected to by the counsel for defendant. Objection allowed by court.

The witness stated.—I understand I was blackballed by a clique of racing men. I was proposed for the Hong-Kong Club, so far as I recollect, in the spring of 1862. I was elected for the Shanghai Club in December 1864. After I had been elected for the Shanghai Club, I frequently resided at the Hong-Kong Club as an honorary member. Members of the Shanghai Club are by right honorary members of the Hong-Kong Club. I did not reside but visited there. When I left China I came to Calcutta. I dealt in shares and stocks on the Indian market. I began to race in 1860 when I went to China first. When I came to India first I resided at the Great Eastern Hotel and afterwards at the Bengal Club. I commenced racing in India immediately after I arrived in 1870 or 1871. I think I raced horses in Bangalore in 1872. I had a dispute with the Stewards of the Bangalore Races in 1872. The Bangalore Stewards at the end of the meeting disqualified my horses from running. I abused the Stewards. I accused them of unfair handicapping and I told two of them that they were more fitted to black my boots than to handicap. They then got up a case against me, and accused me of bribing a jockey. The transaction I was accused of was known to everybody. I made it known myself. I told all my friends of it. The Stewards of the Bangalore Races forwarded their decision to the Calcutta Turf Club. The Calcutta Turf Club confirmed it. I appealed. The result of my appeal was that the decision of the Stewards of the Bangalore Races was rescinded. I have continued to race my horses since then. I presented several cups to be run for at different races before the one I presented at the Meerut Races. I believed I have been on friendly terms with Lord William Beresford. He rode a horse for me very kindly in 1875 in arace at Umballa. He also used to visit at my house in Dehra in 1875. He also wrote private letters to me. I was present at the great Umballa meeting.

During that meeting had the defendant any dispute with you?—He attacked me in a very violent manner and in very strong language.

The counsel for the defendant objected to the answer as not being an answer to the question.

The witness stated—I offered a cup at the Meerut Races. I gave a 500-rupee cup for a handicap for ponies I had an particular dispute with the handicappers. I was not pleased with the handicapping. I did not run my horse. There was a disturbance at the lotteries. So far as I recollect I was sitting in a chair quietly; Mr. Holmes looking at me very hard. Mr. holmes suddenly said:—"You are damned sorry for having given this cup. Its is the first thing you ever gave in your life." Those are the exact words so far as I can recollect. I replied, "It is a lie." Mr. holmes thereupon jumped at me, whilst I was sitting down, and caught me by the collar of my shirt, so that I was unable to move. Immediately Lord William Beresford appeared and commenced a string of violent abuse, the particulars of which I do not remember. My friends thereupon requested me to apologize for the term lie, which I did at their advice, although the statement made by Mr. Holmes was an untruth. Some time after I had apologized, Lord William Beresford said to me when I was tossing for tickets, "Maitland, I will toss you for five tickets." I replied, "No my Lord, I decline. I do not choose to be called abusive names at one moment and to be on friendly terms the next." Nothing more occurred, and I left the room when the lotteries were, I believe, over. On information which I received, I wrote a letter to Lord William Beresford the next day. After the letter referred to above (dated Sunday morning), Mr. hopkins called on me on beaalf of Lord William Beresford. I asked him to take a walk. He said, "Come, Maitland, you and I have always been good friends, and I have come to talk over this matter of Lord William Beresford." I replied, "I can take nothing but an ample written apology and retraction," and referred Mr. Hopkins to my legal adviser, Mr. Turner. Surgeon-Major Thorburn, Captain Hayes, and Captain Lemlle, of the Buffs, all told me that I must clear myself of the charges brought against me by Lord William Beresford, and made openly in a lottery room, or they could not continue on the same friendly terms with me as previously. Directly I found Lord William Beresford's letter intended to stand as an apology was no apology at all but rather an aggravation of the offence by the very insulting tone adopted, I instructed my counsel to take legal measures.

Cross-examined by defendant's counsel.—I am living in India, and I buy and sell shares and stocks, and I amuse myself by racing. Beyond buying and selling shares I have no profession.

May I take it that you have no other trade or business?—Not at all, racing is my amusement.

As I have not asked you what your amusement is, will you please tell me what your trade or business is?—I have already answered that question.

Will you tell me what your trade or business is?—I only deal in shares and stocks. I don't require to work for my living. I deal occasionally in stocks and shares, and it is not for me to say whether you are right or wrong. I have no regular business.

Do you do what any other man does who has money,—i. e., invest it as you consider to advantage?—I don't know what other people do. I have given my answer. I occasionally invest in stocks and shares. I have been living in this way since I gave up business in China—I think since 1871. I do bet on races. I own, train and race horses. I attend lotteries on horses and take chances. I have been doing this since I have been in India: since I was 20 years of age. The Bangalore Turf is the first place, I think, in 1872. I do not consider myself a regular dealer in stocks or shares. I have not taken out any licence. A member of the Shanghai Club becomes a member of the Hong-Kong Club without being proposed or seconded, to the best of my belief. I am not a member of the Bengal Club. I was a Hong-Kong member for three months when I first arrived in Calcutta in either 1870 or 1871. I think 1871. I did abuse the Stewards of the Bangalore Races. I accused them as well. By abuse, I mean I said that they were more fitted to black my boots than to make handicaps. I cannot say whether I made use of more strong language than that. I am not in the habit of making use of strong language at race meetings.

Are you quite sure that your account of what the Calcutta Turf Club did with reference to the action of the Bangalore Stewards is correct?—To the best of my belief I only gave a general account of the proceedings.

Are you quite sure that the order of the Bangalore Stewards was recinded?—It was substantially rescinded, inasmuch as they allowed me to run my horses again.

Will you please answer my question, yes or no; you are either sure or not?—I am not sure.

What is your doubt?—My doubt is as to the meaning of the word "rescinded."

Did they or did they not absolutely set aside the order of the Bangalore Stewards?—They did not absolutely set it aside. They in fact at first confirmed it, but subsequently allowed me to run my horses. As far as they were concerned, they finally set it aside. I am perfectly clear on that point. The orders of the Calcutta Turf Club were communicated to me. It is a long time ago that they were communicated. It is very likely they were communicated to me in writing.

Is it your belief at the present time that they were in writting?—It is impossible for a man to remember these details after a number of years.

Does your memory serve you to be able to say whether the whole of your applications to the Calcutta Turf Club were not in writting, of the whole of the answers also in writing?—I can't remember at this lapse of time.

Does your memory serve you to be able to say whether, instead of rescinding, the Calcutta Turf Club actually confirmed ultimately the decision of the Baugalore Stewards so far as to disqualify you from racing throughout 1872 and the close of the Bangalore season of 1873?—It is very difficult to remember exact dates, and it seems to me the answer depends upon the meaning of the word "ultimately." I have already stated the decision was at fist confirmed, and no doubt a considerable period did elapse before it was rescinded. I daresay it was about the time stated in the question. I have had a difficulty in answering that question because the word "ultimately" has been used.

Will you swear that the decision of the Calcutta Turf Club was not this—viz., that Mr. Maitland's disqualification be limited to after the close of the Bangalore meeting of 1873?—Certainly not. It is my belief that it was. I have already said that a considerable period had elapsed. I believe that that was the decision of the Calcutta Turf Club. I believed it when I answered Mr. Turner. I believe it now, but you have called the circumstances more clearly to my memory. I have always said that the decision was confirmed. I have also said that the decision was rescinded, meaning by "rescinded" that the decision had been withdrawn or cancelled after a term. I don't remember what answer I gave Mr. Turner on this point.

The decision which was confirmed was a decision disqualifying you from racing because you had bribed a jockey?—The reasons of the decision were not communicated to me so far as I can remember.

Am I to understand that you don't know in respect of what offence that was a decision?—So far as I can remember the Stewards merely disqualified my horses without stanting their reasons. I believe I originally stated that the charge brought against me was for having given part of a bet to a jockey which the Stewards interpreted as a bribe. If I did not state this before, I intended to have stated it. I don't remember what evidence I gave as to having been accused of bribing a jockey.

Did you know, or did you not know, with what offence you were charged?—I knew that there was a general charge of bribery; but the Stewards took the evidence in private, and declined to furnish me with anything beyond a copy of their decision.

Did they furnish you with information of the charge?—Generally. I don't remember whether they told me that I had been charged with bribing a jockey. I can't remember anything further than what I have already stated. They told me the jockey's name. I don't remember their telling me for what purpose I had bribed him.

Was the charge then general or particular?—There was no charge. I did not understand your question. I suppose you call the charge particular. I don't call it a charge. I don't call it anything at all. To the best of my belief I did not say, in examination in chief, that I did not have a dispute with the defendant at the Umballa meeting. I had no dispute or altercation with the defendant at all. I say this to the best of my recollection. In 1877 at the Umballa meeting what the defendant said to me was, "Why don't you go back to China? Why don't you go back to Madras?" Rightly or wrongly, the reason why he attacked me was that he thought I had bid for a horse at a lottery when he believed I had agreed not to bid. I did bid for a horse, but the defendant was wrong in thinking that I had agreed not to bid. I don't remember whether the defendant gave me a share of that horse on the condition that I should not bid for it. Somebody did. My impression is that it was the owner of the horse. I have a decided recollection that the defendant on that occasion did not say anything about cards or any improper action on my part about cards. I don't remember that he then said that "there was a card waiting for you in China." I don't remember that I then told him that "for God's sake don't refer to that; a fellow makes mistakes sometimes," or words to that effect. I have no recollection of saying anything of the kind. I am positive I did not say so; not then, nor at any other time. I have stated, so far as I can recollect, the words the defendant used on that occasion. I don't remember abusing the Stewards at the Meerut Races in October 1879. To the best of my belief, I did not abuse them. I did abuse the handicappers, Mr. Holmes, Captain Hayes, and Mr. Thomas. I said they were "damned fools." I do not remember that I said anything else. I will not be positive that I did not say anything more. I may have called them "damned fools" publicly once or twice.

The witness adds—I had frequently heard handicappers being called "damned fools" at race meetings.

The counsel for the defendant objected to the latter part of this answer, as no answer to his question, which was—"Did you, or did you not, use the words more than once publicly?"

You did so because you thought it proper that other men had done so?—I don't defend the practice, but I say it is a very common one. At the present time I had no recollection that I ever at that meeting made use of any other words about the handicappers. I don't remember having accused the handicappers of unfairness. I don't remember if I said that the handicappers had so arranged the handicaps, that a particular horse should win. I don't remember that I said that the handicappers were personally interested in the result of the handicap or in securing the success of a particular horse. I did not, to the best of my recollection, say that the handicappers, besides being damned fools, were guilty of bad faith. I don't recollect where I used the words I did about the handicappers. My own action on the day of the lotteries might have been a little violent. I do not know what you call violent. I made a little noise in talking. I don't know what you think to be "violent." I displayed a little excitement. I may have gesticulated.

Mr. Turner wished that the word "gesticulation" should be explained to the court.

The witness proceeded—I exhibited a little excitement. It would not be correct to say that my action was very violent on that occasion. It certainly did not become so violent that it resulted in my being turned out of the lottery-room. I cannot recollect whom. I addressed when I made use of the words I did about the handicappers. To the best of my recollection, I did not say or do anything prior to the time when Mr. Holmes spoke and acted towards me in the way I have described. I gave no immediate occasion, so far as I remember, for Mr. Holmes acting in the way he did. I was perfectly astonished. There was no occasion for his stating that the cup was the first thing I ever gave in my life. By immediate occasion, I mean no occasion at the time. I speak to the best of my recollection, because it was late at night and after dinner. I wish by that to convey that my recollection was imperfect at that time, because I had been dining rather heavily at the Wheeler Club.
